Prelude "At the Cross"

Call to Worship

Come, let us join at the table.

Let us join at the table. Let us be set free.

Come, a place is set for each of us.

Let us join at the table. Let us be set free.

Come, join the misfits, thieves, and liars.

Let us join at the table. Let us be set free.

Come, young and old, from near or far.

Let us join at the table. Let us be set free.

Come, where shame is no longer welcome.

Let us join at the table. Let us be set free.

Come, where forgiveness and mercy triumph.

Let us join at the table. Let us be set free.

Centering Prayer

O Most Gracious Host, God of banquets and feasts, upper rooms, dusty roads, we give you thanks for inviting us in this night. Still our anxious hearts, quiet our busy minds and calm our restless spirits. Help us pull up a chair, remember your graciousness, and embody your peace this night and all the nights to come. Amen.

The Blessing of the Water

Prayer

Let us pray, Spirit of Christ, we pause to extend to you what feels most vulnerable in each of us. We ask you to pour out compassion over us as you did water over the feet of your disciples. We may be prideful, uncomfortable, anxious, depressed. We may be grieving or overwhelmed, but we ask for your help attuning ourselves with your guidance, strength, and hope. Amen.

+ Hymn No. 695

"As We Gather at Your Table"

Holy Communion

Communion Prayer

God be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to God.

Let us give thanks for the peace of God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

In the streets, In our homes, Here beside this table,

We give you thanks, O Holy One. We give you thanks for giving us a story. Even when we do not understand its meaning, even when we doubt it happened this way. Even when we want to rush ahead to the end. We know that you have given us this story in which to live and move and have our being.

We remember that your story did not begin with a parade, or meal in an upper room, or upon the cross.

But began when you came to move over the waters of creation. We remember the tragedies that came to your people. And we know that you were not silent.

You gave your people a story.

You gave your people a rainbow.

You gave your people a song.

You gave your people peace.

Gather here with us now, O Holy One, Speak to us through this bread and this cup. Remind us of all the stories we've ever heard about you. Imbue these symbols with your peace, so that we might find your peace within ourselves,

Amen.

Words of Institution (1 Corinthians 11:23b-26)

+ Sharing of the Bread and Cup & Foot Washing

At this time, you are invited to come forward, remove your shoes, and have your feet washed. If you do not wish to have your feet washed you may come forward and have your hands washed instead. Following the foot washing, or skipping it, you are invited to take communion.

The Lord's Table is open to all. All bread is gluten-free. Communion tables have been prepared and holding trays containing both white grape juice, and red wine.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

O Holy One, there are no words to describe the mystery of this bread and cup. There are no sighs too deep to reveal what we feel in sharing in this feast. Thank you for gathering us together to remember that you are always present among us. We lift our hearts in prayer, toward your spirit and pray the Prayer that Jesus taught us:

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
